Correspondence

No new correspondence.

Adele Burnett stated she contacted the Hamilton County Clerk's Office and inquired about the map without this board's stamp, which included property owned by the Inlet Golf Club. She was told there was nothing the planning board needed to see, but that they are required to send a letter any time a map is filed without our stamp. Aimee VanWie later received a call from the County Real Property Mapper concerning the same map, stating it needs more attention by the property owner.

There was no report concerning the projects at Arrowhead Park.
